

Street Suffixes and Accepted* Abbreviations

The suffixes and abbreviations listed below have been agreed upon by both City and County officials as the accepted list of suffixes for use in the naming of streets.

Also, from this point forward the following rules shall apply:

1. Under no circumstances shall "Extension" (abbreviated Ext) be considered a viable street suffix.
2. Street suffixes may not be used in the proper name of the street.
3. Directional prefixes may not be used in the proper name of the street.
4. Duplicate proper street names are not permitted, regardless of street suffix. This affects pronunciation as well as spelling. Examples are given below:
  - ❖ Pronunciation: Kathryn, Catherine, Katherine; Fair, Fare; Linda, Lynda
  - ❖ Spelling: Kathryn, Catherine, Katherine; Fair, Fare; Linda, Lynda
5. Within the Salisbury City Limits and ETJ, a street direction may be applied only to those streets that cross Innes Street (in which case the cross street would have a direction of north or south) or Main Street (in which case the cross street would have a direction of east or west).
